Active Ministry as we age:

Well goodness me – someone has even written a Master's Thesis on this very topic! I am not going to try to summarize the findings here – however – it is clear that we can still be 'active' in Christian Ministry from our armchair.

These are a few ways people have found to, not only serve others with Christian purpose and love, they found in doing so it strengthened their own faith.

+ Follow up our prayers with a phone call, text, email or card.

+ Give a word of encouragement to people taking a leadership role in the Parish.

+ Send a message to Parish Council for their meetings.

I'd love to hear of other ideas you have. Let's keep encouraging one another.

Thank you:

The Parish owes a great debt of gratitude to Mel Woodley who has not only spent many hours working to keep our aging data projector functioning, he has also researched for the best possible replacement to enable us to see the worship material clearly.

Once Mel found a suitable replacement he and Lyn travelled to Auckland to make the purchase and ensure we had the projector for our Services. Mel and Lyn, please accept our sincere thanks.
